C. P. HILL, PROMOTER OF HILLCREST, LIKELY SUCCESSOR

One of those little birds that is said to have the gift of whispering brings to our ears the report that C. P. Hill, of Victoria, may succeed Hon. Randolph Bruce as Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia. That is interesting gossip and might easily develop into an actual fact. But C. P. Hill is known to the people down this way, and particularly in the "Crown" Nest as well, as "Chippy" Hill, and they are one, and the same person.

Hillcrest, the "Crown" Nest mining camp, is named after him, because he was responsible for creating it and its wealth came, from his association with it. It is some years now since C.

P. Hill lived in these parts, but he is not forgotten. He lives now in a beautiful home in Victoria and travels abroad with his very gracious and charming wife, every few years. As a host and hostess at Government

House, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Hill could be highly excelled.—Lethbridge Herald.

A Word To the Farmer

Must Produce Quality and Control Volume Of Products

In a message to eastern farmers recently issued, the Hon. R. W. Federal Minister, points out that to compete in world markets the farmers of Canada must: (1) continue to make progress along the lines of even more scientific farming; (2) reduce the cost of producing farm products; and (3) have a definite purpose in marketing, (a) see that no product reaches the market which is not fit for the market, (b) produce in sufficient volume to hold a market once obtained, and (c) regulate supply to such markets as to prevent flooding.

Impressed With North Country

American Writer Is Surprised At Mining Development In Northern Manitoba

Those coming to The Pas, Flin Flon and Sherridon to see frontier towns where life is in the raw, and "anything goes" would do well to stay away from these centres. W. L. Henderson, a writer from Chicago, Ill., visiting in the north, declared in an interview. Mr. Henderson, a free lance newspaper man, and fiction writer, has been searching for local color for a series of stories he is going to write on northern Manitoba's north.

"The progress this country must have made in the past five years is startling," he declared. "Flin Flon and Sherridon are astounding communities to find in the bush country north of the 54th parallel."

"I considered I was fairly well informed on Canada's north country, but I have been astounded by the signs of industrial progress, lawless behaviour of citizens, and the great future that is apparent for these towns and cities," he remarked.

"Flin Flon will rank with any town on the continent as a modern metallurgical plant and Sherridon Gordon will prove to be a rich producer," he predicted.

Pioneer Captain Dead

All-Canada Phone System

Big Telephone Project To Link Halifax With Vancouver

As a result of the co-operative arrangements between the seven main telephone systems of Canada, the work is now proceeding to realize an all-Canada transcontinental system that will make it possible for a man in Vancouver, a distance of 4,319 miles, without using lines outside of the Dominion.

At the present time a long distance call from Montreal to Vancouver would require a connection first with Chicago then with Seattle and from there to Vancouver.

Up to the present time it has been impossible to link western Canada with eastern Canada over an all-Canadian route.

This has been partly due to differences in standard equipment of the various companies, but chiefly to the fact that what is known as "long" long distance service requires somewhat different equipment than the "short haul" traffic, such as large size copper wire, etc.

With a view to inaugurating the all-Canada service, large size copper wires have already been installed between Toronto and Winnipeg, while the three government systems of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta are now at work constructing such heavy duty lines necessary to the introduction of the all-Canada service. British Columbia and Maritime organizations are also undertaking the work so that in the near future the construction of the line from coast to coast is expected to be complete.

At the rate the work is at present proceeding, it is anticipated that by the summer of 1931 long distance messages may be transmitted from Halifax to Calgary, and by the spring of 1932, it is expected the entire coast to coast service will be in operation.

Marine Merger

World-Wide United States Shipping Service To Be Created

The merger, which has been rumored for several months, was announced by P. A. S. Franklin, president of the International Mercantile Marine. The Roosevelt Company, which was organized in 1925, will retain its corporate identity.

West Indies and Canada

Canada must assume a temporary role of "big brother" to the British West Indies if the full possibilities of trade between these parts of the Empire are to be attained, says a report issued by the Empire Club of Ottawa following a study of the subject.

In other words, the report holds, Canadians must spend a greater sum in the West Indies in order that the Island citizens may be placed in a position where they can become heavy purchasers.

DEVIL SHOULD HARM HIM

The Devil Tempted Him, ver. 9-12.—Throughout His ministry Jesus was asked for a "sign" to prove His divine mission, but He refused to give any sign, except at the beginning of His ministry. He settled that question once and for all: "consequently as He was of His enemies' way, He could not be given a sign to prove His mission to His friends." When Jesus came to the world to lead man up to God, He did not want the devil to tempt Him to prove this to the world.

To lead man up to God, He left the world.

JESUS TEMPTED

Golden Text: "In that He, Himself, had suffered being tempted, He is able to succor them that are tempted ed."—Hebrews 2:18.

Lesson: Luke 4:21 to 4:30.

Devotional Reading: Romans 8:31-39.

EXPLANATIONS AND COMMENTS

The Nature Of Christ's Temptations, verses 1, 2.—Yielding to the control of the Holy Spirit, which had come to Him in a special way at His baptism, Jesus went from the Jordan into the neighborhood of Galilee, where He might there meditate undisturbed upon the work God had given Him to do. As the story is told in Mark, the temptation came to Him in the wilderness, where He struggled throughout His wilderness sojourn, but as it is told in Matthew and Luke, the specific temptations seem to have come at the end of the period.

The Temptation To Free Himself From the Limitations Of His Humanity, verses 3, 4.—During a long period Jesus had eaten nothing, and when He was hungry He said to the devil, "If Thou art the Son of God, command this stone that it become bread." The word "it" may be taken to mean the stone itself, or to mean your body. Jesus had just been assured of this at His baptism, why not make use of it for yourself? The question which Jesus had to settle was whether He had the power to use His power which was given Him for the sake of the Kingdom, or should He trust His Father and accept the suffering His Father might send? His answer was, Thou shalt trust.

The Temptation To Establish An Earthly Rather Than A Spiritual Kingdom, verses 5-10.—The Jews were chafing under the Roman yoke. They expected a Messiah who would free them from Rome, and establish an earthly kingdom greater than that of the Devil. What might Jesus accomplish if He yielded to their expectations and established an earthly kingdom? All His efforts to date had been directed to His side of the world, to His people, to His spiritual kingdom. He wanted to establish His spiritual kingdom, not an earthly one.

The Temptation To Preach Upon God's Call, verses 9-12.—Throughout His ministry Jesus was asked for a "sign" to prove His divine mission, but He refused to give any sign, except at the beginning of His ministry. He settled that question once and for all: "consequently as He was of His enemies' way, He could not be given a sign to prove His mission to His friends." When Jesus came to the world to lead man up to God, He did not want the devil to tempt Him to prove this to the world.

The Devil Tempted Him, ver. 13.—When the devil had completed every temptation, he departed from Him for a season. "The moment that the devil left, the life was entered into the mortal body and transfigured into peace within him."—Phillips Brooks.

The Vancouver Sun publishes the following despatch from Prince George, B.C.:

"Prince George has now an exponent of perpetual motion in the person of Nicola Schmidt, a local engineer, who claims to have invented an engine operating by a mixture of water and air, which requires the expenditure of no oil whatever. Mr. Schmidt claims that his engine will occupy about one-third as much space and weighs about one-half as much as the most efficient power plant, and that once it is installed there will be no further expense whatever. Mr. Schmidt is highly secretive as to the principle upon which his engine operates, but his business manager, H. A. Hurtubise, announces that the engine will revolutionize industry.

ACID after meals

GET RID of your dread of pain after eating. Eat without fear of "indigestion," sour stomach, disagreeable gas or headaches.

When you feel nervous, "disease-aggravated" feels like a lump in your stomach. It's a sign of too much acid. You need not resort to crude methods—take instead an anti-acid that will correct the condition. Phillips' Milk of Magnesia.

A spoonful of this pleasant-tasting, soothing fluid relieves many times its volume in acid. It restores the proper alkaline balance to an acidsoured stomach and bowel—as ass'ts these organs to function as they should.

Phillips' Milk of Magnesia is what the doctor needs when a bad breath, coated tongue, headache and sourness indicates an over-acid condition. Take a spoonful today and for several days and see how it sweetens the system. It won't be nearly so liable to colds or a cold will do little harm in the Dominion still in 500 bottles.

Genuine Milk of Magnesia is always a liquid—never a tablet. Look for the name Phillips on the bottle.

"Good land! dearie. I wouldn't call you no 'Slovenly Peter'."

"Well," Gay answered, with a rueful laugh. "I feel like one when I look at Mrs. Halliday! It's hard to keep up with everybody when you have two babies as young as mine. I know some of my aches are bad, but they're not worth sending to a dressmaker, and I'm tired to death—but I hate to have my husband think me—his-toric!"

"Shucks!" said the old man gently. "He don't think no such thing."

"He wouldn't have thought so if it hadn't been for Mrs. Halliday," said Gay. "She's not a product of Bakersville, and she's different from the few summer people who come to us. I just can't understand the Hallidays choosing such a place. They don't fit in—never will, I am sure. I suppose they'll just upset us all in a month and go away—when she tires of her garden."

"The sooner, the better," growled Simeon below his breath; then added cheerfully: "Now, dearie, don't you get worried about yer looks. I know if you'd want to ask Nick outright he'd say you'd got Mrs. Halliday beat."

He rocked quietly for a while. Save for the frogs down by the mill pond, the night was quiet, until suddenly, a whup-poor-will raised its voice.

"First I've heard this year," said Simeon quietly; "then I had to wait a week to make your young mother—say a hundred and three I got chitterin' up my nose again. I don't know what you did, couldn't you take them to Mason's Falls? They'd get a new car, you know, and for some reason she doesn't want to drive it, so she asked me to go."

"I see," said Gay.

There followed the least little silence, then Nick said: "What do you think, dear? I don't want to refuse. I was there to dinner tonight, and she's waiting now to hear your verdict."

"You know best, Nick. Well miss you, of course; but if you feel you must—"

"Well, I sort of do feel that way; and next week you'll be coming home. Look here! you understand, Gay, don't you?"

Anxiously was in his voice, and she replied: "Yes! I understand. Good-night, Nick. Our time must be more than up."

"Hold on a minute! You're really all right, aren't you? Not sick or anything?"

"Of course."

"And the boys?"

"Oh, they're splendid; but they're disappointed not to see their dad."

"You can tell 'em he's disappointed too. Gee! it's good to hear your voice!"

I'm getting a little tired of subsisting on letters and week-end visits. Good-night, dear."

"Good-night," said Gay quietly, and hung up.

But she didn't move for a minute.

She sat there by the telephone, her heart pounding too rapidly. "Why on earth should I mind so much?" she asked herself. "It's ridiculous—childish. It's not right to get dependent on one human being for all your happiness, even if he's your husband. If that feeling grows stronger, I'll have to come back to him again. Nick couldn't refuse to go w/ Mrs. Halliday. This is the third time he's dined there; and we'll go home on Wednesday anyway. I ought to be ashamed to mind at all!"

She drew a deep breath and went back to the piazza. It was dark, and Simon couldn't see her face.

"What's up?" he questioned.

"Nothing, except that Nick can't come tomorrow."

She tried to speak cheerfully, but her mood was not lost on the old man.

"Ain't s'ck, is he?" he questioned.

"No; but our new neighbor has asked a favor he couldn't very well refuse. She has some visitors, and wants him to drive them to Mason's Falls on Sunday."

"Can't that cynical husband o' hers drive a car?"

"She usually drives herself, but she wants a chauffeur for this special trip. Her husband's mother has just died and he's away."

"So—she's grounded. Simeon. "So—she's grounded. Simeon. She goes salivatin' with her new friends! Simeon, Gay, I don't know ways to take that neighbor o' yours."

A breath of relief escaped Gay's lips.

"It does me good to hear you say so, Uncle Sim. I don't take to her."

either; yet I can't lay a finger on anything really wrong with her, except her silly talk about children spoiling her career. I don't see that she has much of a career anyway, though she does sing divinely, and paints, too. Nick says I'm unjust to her. Perhaps I am. I'll admit that to see her ordering a man to weed those flower beds she makes such a fuss about sometimes enrages me. She looks so neat. Nick spoke of it one day, and I just know he was wishing I looked the same, though he didn't say so."

"Good land! dearie. I wouldn't call you no 'Slovenly Peter'."

"Well," Gay answered, with a rueful laugh. "I feel like one when I look at Mrs. Halliday! It's hard to keep up with everybody when you have two babies as young as mine. I know some of my aches are bad, but they're not worth sending to a dressmaker, and I'm tired to death—but I hate to have my husband think me—his-toric!"

"Shucks!" said the old man gently. "He don't think no such thing."

"He wouldn't have thought so if it hadn't been for Mrs. Halliday," said Gay. "She's not a product of Bakersville, and she's different from the few summer people who come to us. I just can't understand the Hallidays choosing such a place. They don't fit in—never will, I am sure. I suppose they'll just upset us all in a month and go away—when she tires of her garden."

"The sooner, the better," growled Simeon below his breath; then added cheerfully: "Now, dearie, don't you get worried about yer looks. I know if you'd want to ask Nick outright he'd say you'd got Mrs. Halliday beat."

He rocked quietly for a while. Save for the frogs down by the mill pond, the night was quiet, until suddenly, a whup-poor-will raised its voice.

"First I've heard this year," said Simeon quietly; "then I had to wait a week to make your young mother—say a hundred and three I got chitterin' up my nose again. I don't know what you did, couldn't you take them to Mason's Falls? They'd get a new car, you know, and for some reason she doesn't want to drive it, so she asked me to go."

"I see," said Gay.

There followed the least little silence, then Nick said: "What do you think, dear? I don't want to refuse. I was there to dinner tonight, and she's waiting now to hear your verdict."

"You know best, Nick. Well miss you, of course; but if you feel you must—"

Anxiously was in his voice, and she replied: "Yes! I understand. Good-night, Nick. Our time must be more than up."

"Hold on a minute! You're really all right, aren't you? Not sick or anything?"

"Of course."

"And the boys?"

"Oh, they're splendid; but they're disappointed not to see their dad."

"You can tell 'em he's disappointed too. Gee! it's good to hear your voice!"

I'm getting a little tired of subsisting on letters and week-end visits. Good-night, dear."

"Good-night," said Gay quietly, and hung up.

CANADA'S WESTERN CRISIS

The prairie provinces of Canada—the last great west—are enduring a winter of discouragement and despair. The price of wheat is lower today than it has been for fifty years. The plight of the Canadian farmer is desperate.

What is the cause?

The Russian peasant has invaded the grain markets of the Dominion. Mass production by slave labour and at the point of the machine-guns is pouring wheat at any price into the markets once held by the Canadian farmer.

Does this mean nothing to the politicians at Westminster? Does it mean nothing to the co-operative societies, with their immense purchasing power? Does it mean nothing to us as a nation?

When British soil was threatened with invasion in 1914, Canada sent her youth and her treasure.

To-day, sixteen years afterwards, the foreign menace, no less cruel and hostile than in 1914, is directed at the markets of Canada.

Are we so flabby in spirit, so ungrateful and so incapable of action that we cannot even raise a hand to stop the import of Russian grain into Great Britain and open our gates to the produce of our own kinsmen? —Ex.

PART OF NIAGARA FALLS
CREATLY FALLS INTO CHASM

Niagara Falls, N.Y., Jan. 19.—Thousands of tons of rock at the crest of Niagara Falls, between the American shore and Luna Island, gave way Sunday and crashed into the chasm.

Rapid erosion continued for several hours, beginning at about midnight and continued until 6 a.m., reservation officials said.

The new pile of rock at the foot of the falls was estimated to be between 80 and 100 feet high.

The crest of the falls between Prospect Point and Luna Island for a distance of 1,930 feet, is normally covered with water to a depth of 1.5 feet.

The break is V shaped, about 90 feet at its base and the apex cuts back into the old rock formation about 50 feet. It is located about 360 feet from Luna Island.

The fall of rock is the largest that has occurred since white men knew the great cataract.

"ROAD HOG" FINED IN EDMONTON COURT

Action against "road hogs" is being taken by the Edmonton branch of the Alberta Motor Association.

Some time ago the directors decided that they would prosecute any proper case, if reported, of drivers failing to turn out to allow vehicles overtaking them to pass. Since that decision the directors received a complaint of an occurrence of the kind on a highway near the city. Instructions were therefore issued to C. H. Grant, K.C., legal counsel for the organization, to start action against the driver of the truck mentioned in the complaint.

When the case was heard recently in Edmonton, the truck driver was found guilty and fined $10 and costs by the police magistrate, who issued a warning against any further offences of the kind.

Lots of people miss the cuspidor when it's gone. And they also miss it before.

MEDICINE HAT MAY LOSE POTTERY WORKS

Will Medicine Hat lose the plant of Medaka Potteries, Ltd.? Attracted by large sources of cheap fuel, there is a danger that the potters will move from Medicine Hat to the Calgary district, close to Turner Valley. The matter was discussed at length at the recent meeting of directors at Calgary. Winnipeg is also bidding for the potters and it is feared by the Medicine Hat News that this important industry will be lost to the eastern city unless the city council finds a permanent solution to the gas supply problem. The potters employ 110 hands when running to capacity and with extensions now being considered this staff would be considerably increased.—Lethbridge Herald.

CORBIN HAPPENINGS

Upon a doctor's examination this week, Alex McVey discovered he had sustained a fractured rib while playing hockey for Corbin on Blairemore ice.

Rene Farland, after having been confined to his home with an attack of pleurisy, is able to be up and around again.

At the Rebekah bridge and tea, held in the lodge hall on Thursday last, Mrs. Walfer Sykes was winner of ladies' first prize, while the consolation went to Mrs. Joe Matt.

After the hockey game here last Thursday night between Corbin and Michel, lunch was served in the Club hall for the visiting team. A short dance followed.

After a short illness, Mr. Alex Almond of Michel, passed away early Monday morning, the 19th. The heart-felt sympathy of the Corbin community is extended to Mr. Walter Almond and Mrs. T. J. Barnes, brother and sister, who reside here.

Thursday last, the Michel senior team played their first-game on Corbin ice, before a crowd of between two and three hundred, and had to be content with the short end of a 4-2 score.

Although the Michel boys showed lots of speed and worked well together, their rushes lacked finish near the goal, and most of their attacks were broken on the Corbin defense before they had much chance to buster uphill. All through, Corbin had a slight edge on the Michel, and had not Taylor, the Michel goalie, turned in the game he did, the score would have been much higher, for Corbin. From the face-off, C. Joyce took the puck through to the visitors' defense and tested out the goal tender with a hard low shot. Michel came right back to try uphill, but Gardiner was always in the job, saving his goal tender much hard work.

After eleven minutes of fast play, Gardiner came up the right fence to lay a nice pass for Clifford, who marked up one for Corbin. Michel retaliated in less than a minute, when Littlegger sliced the hemp. Four minutes later J. Joyce, on a long rush, put his team one ahead. With three minutes to go, "Sheik" Simister, assisted by Jim Jenkins, evened the score. Period ended with Corbin attacking hard, but not being able to work together to advantage when close in. Score 2-2; penalties nil.

After three minutes of fast play, J. Joyce came through alone, and after showing the spectators a pretty piece of stick handling, scored the fifth goal of the game, putting Corbin in the lead. All the remainder of the period was hotly contested by both teams, and the onlookers witnessed the fastest hockey that has been seen here this season. Corbin 3, Michel 2.

Penalty—Gaskill. The last period opened fast, with both teams playing all out, but Corbin boys had a decided edge all the way. Jimmy Joyce put them one more in the lead after seven minutes of play. From then on until the final bell, both teams showed plenty of speed and checking ability, but lacked finish around the nets. Final score: Corbin 4, Michel 2.

Michel—R. Taylor, goal; J. Jenkins, I. Littlegger, defense; F. Simister, G. Sofko, P. Gaskill, forwards; J. Halko, E. Whally, J. Gaskill, subs.

Corbin—V. Uphill, goal; J. Falconer, H. Gardner, defense; D. Selinsky, C. Joyce, J. Joyce, forwards; Clifford, Halko, E. Whally, J. Gaskill, subs.

Mr. L. Russell has been on the sick list for some time in the Corbin hospital. We understand he is now improving considerably.

A large number from here travelled to Michel on Sunday to watch their team in action. Weather conditions made the road excellent for travel. The game resulted in a two-to-two draw. The game was somewhat disappointing. Neither team played in their usual form, and the game was notable for penalties. All through the play was rough and tripping was very frequent. W. Jenkins acted as referee.

A teacher wished to impress on her pupils the importance of being original, so she said: "Thomas repeat these sentences in your own words: 'The cow is pretty. The cow is sweet.'"

JASPER FILM TO

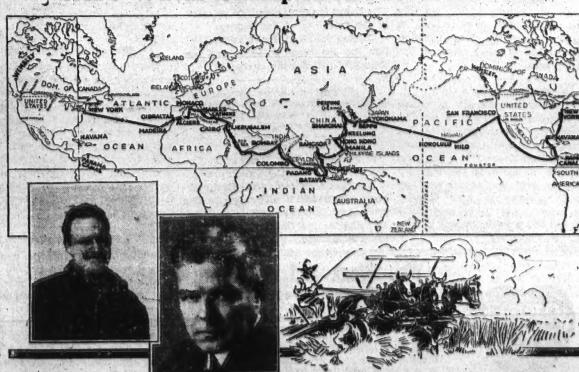

BE SHOWN IN WEST

Jasper has crashed its way into the world of the silver screen and all but taken the glory away from a half dozen renowned movie stars. Screened for the major part in Jasper National Park amid the snow-clad peaks of the Athabasca and Colin ranges, the Fox Films feature presentation "Under Suspicion" has been released for Canadian showing and will shortly appear in western theatres.

Only superb action and the matchless voice of the male star, J. Harold Murray, prevent the grandeur of the scenery snatching the attention of the beholder and riveting it to the gorgeous pictures framed amid eternal snows. It is an almost breath-taking experience to see a story of romance in the Royal Canadian Mounted Police eradicated in the bosom of this glorious section of the Rockies.

Pretty Lois Moran has an exquisite setting for her role as daughter of the presiding officer of the Mount Royal Police detachment. Incidentally, Betty Sandford Smith, attractive Toronto girl, doubled for Miss Moran in some of the scenes. The Irish comedy team, Kerrigan and Connolly, have made good use of Jasper Park Lodge in some delightfully humorous scenes. One of the thrills of the picture is a forest fire.

Keep Cool.

Foreign Minister Briand, of France, when recently taken to task by one of the Nationalist leaders who charged him with lack of firmness in dealing with the existing situation, answered with some show of spirit: "I believe the best service one can render his country just now is by remaining cool."

Another state executive, Marcus Aurelius, gave practically the same counsel in the second century of this era when he said: "Do not be whirled about, but in every movement have respect to justice, and on the occasion of every impression maintain the faculty of understanding." Or, more briefly, keep cool.

The advice to keep cool, says a United States publication, is sound advice to every one of us at the beginning of 1931. True, but it is good advice at all times. The advice will be just as sound at the end of the year, at the beginning, and at all time intervening. The two quotations above demonstrate the inasmuch as the advice tendered by an outstanding statesman of the second century is repeated by one of our leading world statesmen in the twentieth century. The words used may be different, but the meaning is the same.

Do not be whirled about. Keep cool.

When the stream of life is flowing evenly toward its destined goal, following a well marked channel, with hardly a ripple on the surface, it is comparatively easy to keep cool. There is nothing to whir us about, and in the resultant tide of prosperity we pride ourselves on our strength and boast of the stability and greatness of our country.

But it is when, feeling thus safe from a sense of false security, whether in our individual or national life, we reach the rapids, and rocks of disaster, look up ahead, that we are inclined to be whirled about. Then is the time for cool heads, stout hearts and steady hands. It is then that our strength will be proven, and the stability and greatness of our people and our country established.

In the realm of nature, cyclones and tornadoes result from the impact of hot air currents with cooler currents, the one rising, the other descending. Conflict ensues. So in the realm of world economics, business depressions follow inevitably upon periods of abnormal prosperity. Just as water becomes inflated, so does man in his business enterprise become puffed up. Both must eventually be deflated, and it is in the process of deflation that trouble comes.

Then is the time to keep cool. When the sun is shining, and storm clouds are absent from the sky, and the barometer is steady, a ship's captain has a comparatively easy time, but when the storm breaks and the hurricane roars, and the ship is tossed and whirled about, it is essential that the captain remain cool and not whirled about.

This old world is just now in a "storm centre." It is passing through; in time it will emerge. But it is now that we must all keep cool; it is now that it would be fatal to be whirled about. The present is not the time to abandon the old charters which have guided us in the past. Now is not the time to throw the compass overboard, and mutiny against the captain. When we have finally emerged from the present difficulty we should, of course, take stock of our harrowing experience, and endeavor to devise ways and means to prevent or lessen the force of another such storm. But while the storm rages, keep cool.

Keep busy, work harder than ever before and work cheerfully, knowing that every effort you make will be made the easier to bear; keep a file of records of understanding in full play, take alert advantage of every opportunity. Don't be stamped and don't be discouraged. Let every one put his shoulder to the wheel and pull push together.

To one and all, now and for every day of this year, is presented the admonition of the ancient Philistine leader: "Be strong, and quit yourselves like men."

Mining Engineers Discover One Of Unprecedented Wealth

A gold field, which is declared to be of unprecedented extent and wealth, has been discovered in Formosa by mining engineers representing the Tokyo Imperial University. Dr. Jisshiro Yokobori, head of the expedition, estimates the amount of gold available to aggregate $2,500,000. The deposits, he said, extend for approximately 150 miles and are alluvial in nature. "I actually picked up gold dust in river beds, in the mountains, on the plains and even on the streets of small villages," Dr. Yokobori said.

World Wants More Gold

Gold is one commodity in which there appears no threat of a surplus. The world is constantly crying out for more. From Australia comes word that New South Wales has gone the length of being the only country by paying half the actual working costs of prospectors and offering other inducements. It is said there are over 1,000 prospectors out in that state.

Mrs. Edward A. Allen, Banffon, Alta., writes:—"I would like to tell you of the great benefit I have received from your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I was feeling very much run down in health, and was not able to do my housework, in fact, I could scarcely get out of bed. I would have to lie down in the afternoon for a nap. I went to the drug store and took a box home with me, and was delighted with my renewed strength. I have recommended them to a neighbor and feel sure they will help her too."

Nations Warned Against Russia

Trading With Soviets Provides Funds To Finance Revolution

A special cable from London to the Toronto Globe says:

"The President of the Bureau of the International Comittee against the Treaty of Versailles, in a serious warning to the nations of the world, through the Geneva press, against Russia's five-year plan. His pronouncement says in part:

"Whoever buys goods coming from Russia helps to provide the Russian government with the funds which it needs to maintain its dictatorship and to finance revolution, in the purchasing country, as in others, takes advantage of the exploitation of the Russian people, and aggravates the shortage of food and other articles of prime necessity from which these people are suffering."

"Whoever sells to the Soviet government, directly or indirectly, receives in payment money of doubtful origin; contributes to the realization of the 'five-year plan,' a war machine of which the workers will be the first victims, directed against the prosperity of other nations."

Overwork or Worry

Taxes the Health Of Thousands

Of Young Girls

In the "teen-age" year when school or office work is exacting and outside activities use up so much energy, many girls undermine their health and spoil their happiness for years.

At such a time Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will be found most valuable. They are easily absorbed, quickly build up the nerve cells and correct run-down conditions. Concerning these, Miss Margaret Torrey, Indian Head, Ontario, says: "When I was attending high school I suffered a complete breakdown. My heart would palpitate at the least exertion. I could not sleep at night. I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and before long gained in weight and every disease symptom left me."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Noise Has Been "Harnessed"

Acoustic Paint Assures Quietness In Toronto

Toronto's New Bank Building

On an acoustical physical impossibility, since man commenced to erect their first buildings they have been confronted with the seemingly unsolved problem of control of acoustics. Prof. G. R. Anderson, of the University of Toronto department of engineering physics, has proven acoustics can be controlled and that bewildering noises and echoes will be eliminated from our buildings.

On the sixth floor of the new Bank of Commerce building, at King and Jordan Streets, Prof. Anderson demonstrated how special construction treatment can prevent any sort of sounds produced becoming echo-like.

The great bank building will be the quietest office structure in Toronto. Rooms that have been structurally treated will be 30 per cent quieter than the others, and it is predicted the efficiency of staffs will be enhanced 15 per cent.

Eradication of disagreeable noises accomplished largely by the evolution of a new type of acoustic paint.

Miller's Worm Powders not only exterminate intestinal and other worms, but they are a remedy for many other ailments of children. They strengthen the young stomach and intestines and are tonic in their effects from loss of appetite. In feverish conditions they will be found useful and they will serve to allay pain attacks in the stomach, from which children so often suffer.

Agriculture Needs Help

Ways and means have been devised for helping all the industries except agriculture. Thought should be directed at once to a policy that will bolster up farming. If agriculture can be made even tolerably prosperous all other industries will derive more benefit from the reflected prosperity than they could ever hope to enjoy from a tariff as high as the peace tower on Parliament Hill.—Farmers' Advocate.

What Price Glory

Judging from an incident which occurred recently at the Bell Telephone School, Bagdad, the city might still be in wastes of snow and ice for all one gentleman overseas knows about it. The mailman delivered a science catalogue to the technical school master from London, England, advertising scientific equipment. It was addressed simply: "Science Master, High School, Regina, North West Territories." What price glory, Saskatchewan?

Doctor Lives On Raw Food

Advocates Simple Diet In Order To Keep In Good Health

Hard times and unemployment distress could be greatly lessened, according to Dr. Julian P. Thomas, Winnipeg food specialist, because one bushel of wheat and one bushel of oats, together with a little fresh vegetation, would keep a man well nourished for at least a year.

In support of this startling assertion, Dr. Thomas cites an experiment performed by himself some forty years ago, when he lived on nothing but raw wheat and water for a period of ninety days. At that time the wheat cost $1 per bushel. When he started the experiment, he had such a weak stomach that he could not eat sufficient ordinary food to keep going. On the raw foods he became so strong and healthy that he was able to turn his excessive energy into money.

Upon investigating the subject, he finds that some people in all of the older nations have lived as he now lives, some of them attaining such old age as 100 years. He does not believe the exception even when they occur in the Bible. The fact is, Dr. Thomas was first induced to pay attention to his diet through reading the Book of Daniel. His first experiments were started years ago, and many people then laughed at his ideas. But all of these people are now dead, and he is still going strong, with the first belief that he will live for one or two hundred years, and that each day of his life will be happy and vigorous.

An Accurate Clock

Designed For Timing Football Matches At Highbury, England

A novel clock has been installed on the football grounds at Highbury, England. It has forty-two minute time-sounds, and at half-time and time-laps, sounds an electrically-powered horn. From one to forty-five minutes are marked on the face in black. From forty-six to ninety they are in red. If a player is injured during the course of a match, the operator can stop the clock at once, for it is worked by ordinary clockwork mechanism. Thus, this clock can be adjusted so as to measure the exact duration of actual play. This mammoth timepiece weighs one and a quarter tons without its frame and is no less than eight feet in diameter. It has been designed for the sole purpose of making the timing of football matches as accurate as possible.

BRITISH FILM GUILD IS FORMED IN CANADA

Toronto, Ont.—Announcement was made recently of the organization of the British Film Guild in Canada, an independent organization of Canadian citizens interested in viewing British and Canadian pictures in Canadian theatres. The Guild has an initial membership of 150 people and is now conducting a mail poll for the election of officers.

Believing the vagueness surrounding specific activities of British studios, the personalities of stars and directors, what British films are currently available for Canadian showings and how they appeal to Canadian tastes, to be one of the major handicaps to British films progress in Canada, the Guild hopes to act as a clearing house for information, the announcement said.

Its apprentices will preview incoming British films and send comments to the membership at large.

Members as a whole will report on British films they see and a summarized symposium of Canadian opinion will be sent to the British producer for his information as an indication of Canadians' film entertainment. Statistics on British films will be compiled with a notation of where they were shown, audience reactions and degree of box office success in each case. Co-operation of British producers in such things as arranging previews has, it stated, been obtained.

Decision On Freight Rates Re-Affirmed

Railway Board Explains Method Of Computing Reduction In Maritimes

Ottawa, Ont.—A re-affirmation of their former decision as to the correct method of computing by the 20 per cent. cut in maritime freight rates should be arrived at as contained in a judgment of the board of railway commissioners, delivered here.

The judgment decrees that on west-bound freight traffic the point of whose origin lies within the "select region," the results of which are the same as the ratio which the distance between that point of origin and the westerly limit of the "select area." Diamond Junction, bears to the whole distance from the point of origin to the ultimate destination. That is to say, a commodity transported, for example, from Moncton, N.B., to Calgary, Alta., enjoys the 20 per cent. freight reduction not on the entire Moncton-Calgary rate but on that proportion of the Moncton-Calgary rate which that commodity bears on the distance between Moncton and Diamond Junction, or Levis, Que.

Talks To Buenos Aires

Prince Of Wales Telephones Across 6,500 Miles From London To Argentine

London, England.—The Prince of Wales picked up a telephone in York House and sent his voice across 6,500 miles to Buenos Aires, talking for seven minutes with Sir Herbert Gibson, chairman of the British trade exhibition, which the Prince will open in the Argentine capital March 14.

So clear was the transmission that friends sitting near the Prince could hear what Sir Herbert said. First he read a message of welcome to the heir and then there was an informal chat.

Courage Needed Says Federal Woman Member

Miss MacPhail Thinks Representatives In House Should Follow Their Conscience

Brantford, Ont.—"You can take your conscience into the House of Commons, but to keep it there—oh boy!" commented Agnes MacPhail, M.P., in an address here, after reviewing the attitude of the members toward a woman colleague.

Miss MacPhail declared that there was no need to go in and tell a member to follow their own consciences, and courage to stand for what was right irrespective of party or the big interests. The House, she said, "badly needed Hon. Arthur Meighen and Hon. Charles Dunning, two men of courage."

She declared that prosperity could not be secured by injecting life into one or another industry as with a hypodermic needle, but was dependent on the prosperity of all.

British Shipyards Busy

Built Over Third Of World Construction Last Quarter-Year

London, England.—Well over one-third of the total "shipping" under construction in the world in the quarter-year ending November 30, was in British shipyards, according to Lloyd's quarterly report. The exact percentage was 39.1 out of a total of 2,326,080 tons. Only figures not taken into account are the comparatively small tonnages building in Russia, which does not supply statistics.

The number of ships being built in Great Britain in the period was 181 with a total tonnage of 908,802. This was a decrease of 207,844 tons from the previous quarter, and 651,352 tons less than in the same period of 1929.

Of the foreign tonnage under construction, 232,030 was recorded in the United States, 281,215 in Germany, 175,677 in Italy, 174,215 in France, and 160,078 in Holland.

January 27 Date Decided On At Cabinet Meeting

Winnipeg, Man.—Manitoba's legislature will open Tuesday, January 27. Premier John Bracken has announced. Decision to commence the session on this date was reached at a cabinet meeting.

Expect Improvement In Fishing Industry

Comprehensive Survey Being Carried Out By Fisheries Department

Halifax, N.S.—A marked improvement and more stable conditions in the Canadian fishing industry, are expected in the reasonably near future by Hon. E. N. Rhodes, minister of fisheries.

Speaking of the survey of the industry being carried out by the department, Hon. Mr. Rhodes said it was of such a comprehensive character that it could not be completed before next August. A study of market conditions at different seasons of the year was one of the factors involved.

Question Of Gold Payment

Advocates Fruit Growing

Manitoba Farmer Says More Money In Fruit Than In Grain

Winnipeg, Man.—A fruit grower of the prairies told delegates to the annual convention of the Manitoba Horticultural Association recently, that fruit growing should be regarded as a profitable field by farmers.

His four acres of crab apples, plum and hybrid cherry trees netted him a greater profit last year, William Shepherd, Rathwell, Man., said, than 300 acres of grain would have. Mr. Shepherd considered fruit farming had a bright future in Manitoba.

HUGE TELEGRAPH MERGER MAY BE ARRANGED

Montreal — Amalgamation In A $50,000,000 Corporation Of The Respective Commercial Telegraph Systems Of The Canadian Pacific Railway And The Canadian National Railway Is Being Considered By The Two Parties.

The Canadian Press understands the proposal has also been put before the Dominion Government at Ottawa. This is the much larger idea behind the statement in Ottawa of Sir Basil Blackett, chairman of Imperial and International Communications. Limited, "that the Canadian Pacific and the Canadian National shall enter into negotiations with the I.C.C. in forming a Canadian overseas communication company, which shall include the Canadian Marconi Company."

The suggested amalgamation presents obvious advantages and no less obvious disadvantages. Economically, there would be the saving in the present duplication from coast to coast in equipment and personnel, but even more important would be the advantages of a strong, all-Canadian corporation, able to meet competition and hold its own against all comers.

For neither of the two Canadian commercial telegraph companies is really independent, because each is necessarily allied and more or less dependent upon one or other of the two. The Canadian National, for instance, controls the Postal, which again results in the bulk of overseas going through for eigh rather than British channels.

This strong corporation would operate at a lower cost and earn a return at lower rates to the permanent advantage of the Canadian public.

At the present time, eight commercial telegraph zones are across the Canadian continent, and a message, to pass from one to another and beyond, means an increasingly higher rate, constituting a heavy toll on the economic life of the country. It is probable that such an amalgamation would permit of the reduction of these eight zones to only three: Eastern zone, from Cape Breton to the Head of the Lakes; Central zone, Head of the Lakes to Regina; Western zone, Regina to Victoria. In other words, commercial telegraph traffic would have to bump over only two cost summits as from coast to coast, instead of over seven, while the great area of Eastern Canada would enjoy a flat rate.

Speaking of the survey of the industry being carried out by the department, Hon. Mr. Rhodes said it was of such a comprehensive character that it could not be completed before next August. A study of market conditions at different seasons of the year was one of the factors involved.

Completion of the first year's contests in the Canadian National Railways community progress competitions for European settlements in Manitoba placed Rossburn, Ukrainian, first; Steinbach, Mennonite, second; Rhineland, Mennonite, third; Ethelbert, Ukrainian, fourth, and Shurburn, Ukrainian, fifth. Above pictures show: (1) Residence of Jacob Scholtenberg, Rhineland; (2) Blumenort school, Steinbach; (3) A. R. Fenner's farm home, Steinbach; (4) Main street of Ethelbert; (5) Community Hall, Rossburn; (6) Byrd school, Rossburn, and (7) King George school, Rossburn.

BUYS SEAT ON GRAIN EXCHANGE

Arthur Cutten, Chicago Operator, Pays Good Price For Entry To Winnipeg Pit

Winnipeg, Man.—With wheat demanded as king in the Chicago grain pit, big operators there are transferring their activities to the Winnipeg
Grain Exchange.

The latest recruit to the local pit is Arthur Cutten, Canadian-born and long called king of the traders, who Tuesday, Jan. 12, paid a surprising sum for a speckling sharp Canada winter de-representatives of the political, diplomatic, business and social world of the Dominion gathered to bid farewell to the Governor-General and his wife, who, for more than four years, have lived among the Canadian people. Bright uniforms of the soldiers, who constituted travelling escort and guard of honor for Their Excellencies, flags and bunting, and a large wreath of beautiful roses with its message of "Good Luck" added colour to the scene.

Cutten is understood to have paid $12,600 for his membership.

Ferguson High Commissioner

Ottawa, Ont.—Canada's new High Commissioner in Great Britain—Hon. G. Howard Ferguson—became a member of the Canadian Privy Council, January 14. Accompanied by Premier R. B. Bennett, the High Commissioner proceeded to Government House and in the presence of His Excellency took the oath as a privy councillor.

Heated by Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, prime minister, members of the Dominion cabinet were present to shake the hands of Viscount and Viscountess Willingdon for the last time. Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Liberal leader; Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, newly-appointed high commissioner for Canada in Great Britain; Hon. Vinton Green, former Canadian minister to Washington, representative of foreign governments in Ottawa, and others prominent in various walks of life in the Dominion were among the crowd which gathered at the station.

After the last farewell were said, as the train moved slowly away from the carpeted stairway up which Their Excellencies had walked to the rear platform of their private train, the band of the governor-general's foot guards struck up the National Anthem, and in a minute changed to the familiar strains of "Auld Lang Syne." The crowd broke into cheers. Their Excellencies waved farewell, and the train pulled away.

Viscount and Lady Willingdon will spend a couple of months in England before leaving to take up their new duties in India.

From Government House, which Their Excellencies left shortly before noon to drive in the state car, off the Central Station, a travelling escort of the Princess Louise Dragon Guards accompanied them. Boy Scouts lined the driveway and the vicinity of the Government House grounds. His Excellency was Chief Scout for Canada.

Accompanying Their Excellencies were E. C. Merville, private secretary and Mrs. Merville, Col. Humphrey Snow, controller of the household, and members of the staff. Mr. and Mrs. Merville will go to India with Lord and Lady Willingdon.

EARTHQUAKE CAUSES HAVOC IN MEXICAN CITY

Mexico City.—Soldiers were turning over the wreckage of the thriving city of Oaxaca, carrying out the bodies of men and women who perished in the earthquake which rocked Southern Mexico.

At least 12 persons perished and many more were injured. Telegraphic communication was impossible and radio messages irregular. The city itself, fragmentary messages said, was in ruins and panic-stricken people slept in the open, despite intense cold, because they were afraid to go back to such homes as were left standing.

The only clear picture of the disaster came out of the ruined city in a message to President Ortiz Rubio from General Evaristo Perez, military commander of the state of Oaxaca.

It was said he had been killed at 25 and another 100 were injured. Another message to the department of communication said that 12 had been killed, but this could not be verified immediately.

"It is impossible to describe the confusion here," the general's message said. "The loss is incalculable. At least 25 persons have been killed or injured and we are still discovering bodies of the dead."

The general's home was destroyed and he was living in his automobile, he said. The military barracks were in ruins and a colonel of cavalry was one of those killed. The police were helping the soldiers to search the ruins for additional victims.

Epicerie of the quake, which struck Oaxaca was placed a few miles northeast of the city. City Health authorities stated for four minutes and one person was killed and 25 injured. There also was considerable property damage.
